After registering, you will receive confirmation and webinar information via email.

The Health Links webinar series connects leaders and influencers to foster knowledge exchange, collaboration and excellence across the province.

Learn about evidence based practices that can be applied to Transitions in Care:

- Understand Discharge Transition Bundle (DTB) decision making tools for staff and self-management tools for patients
- Describe components of Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD) and heart failure teach back methods
- Share experiences and learnings with other colleagues across the province

Guest Speaker:

Kelly O'Halloran, RN(EC), MScN is the Director of Community & Population Health Services at Hamilton Health Sciences and the lead for the Hamilton West and Niagara North West Health Links. She is an Assistant Clinical Professor at McMaster University with the School of Nursing. Kelly is committed to improving patients' health care experience and their health outcomes.

Moderated By: Susan Taylor, Director, QI Program Delivery
